

MID-CAREER FACULTY FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION FORM

The Committee for Interdisciplinary Science Studies
2017–2018 Academic Year
“Facts and Their Discontents”

Application Due: Monday, March 13th, 2017 at 12 noon

DESCRIPTION OF MID-CAREER FELLOWSHIP

Applications are invited from scholars of the humanities and humanistic social sciences such as anthropology, religion, sociology, philosophy, political science, history, English, art history, psychology, and comparative literature who engage and transect our seminar topic. With generous support from the Graduate Center, CUNY, and the Provost’s Office, successful candidates will be granted two course releases from college teaching requirements, to be distributed across the Fall 2017 and Spring 2018 semesters at their departments’ discretion, in return for a commitment to fully participate in the work of the Committee and in the biweekly seminar. Please refer to the website (sciencestudies.gc.cuny.edu) for seminar time and details.

The basis for selection of participants will rest primarily on the relevance to the overall project of the work proposal submitted by applicants. In accord with the interdisciplinary aim of the program, selections will also be made with an eye to maintaining disciplinary diversity. Applicants must be tenured, and preference will be given to faculty in the early stages of career development (i.e. within ten years of receiving tenure).

Fellows will be expected to participate in the biweekly Committee seminar as well as ongoing lectures and symposia. Committee seminars meet biweekly and it is a condition of the fellowship that fellows leave this time free in their teaching schedules.
